Prayer

For The Year Of St. Joseph

Pope Francis

Hail, Guardian of the redeemer, spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary. To you God entrusted his only Son. In you Mary placed her trust; with you Christ became man. Blessed Joseph, to you too show yourself a father and guide us in the path of life. Obtain for us grace mercy and courage and defend us from every evil.

Amen

All of the so-called “private” or “hidden” life of Jesus is entrusted to St. Joseph’s guardianship.

~ St. John Paul II

Practicing Graciousness in the Desert

Looking back over my journey of parenthood, I know there were days when I traveled the extra mile for my children. I made their toast the way they like it, let them play in the park an extra ten minutes, or let them go to the movies with their friends and I finished up the chores on my own. And then, it happened: the attitude. The request for the smallest thing from one of them is met with disdain or bewilderment.

Sometimes you can be made breathless with the ingratitude of another person who takes so much and with so little shame, only to scoff at the idea that they, too, give even the smallest amount.

But if we’re being honest with ourselves, we will admit that we do the exact same thing to God. Haven’t we all been the Israelites in the desert at one point or another? God has parted our Red Sea in some way. He’s led us out of some great trial, given us some great blessings. But then we run into a little resistance somewhere along the way and we throw up our hands. How could you do this to us, Lord? How could you ask this of us? No, I can’t go any further. No, I won’t do any more.

Persisting in the blindness to the many ways God continues to protect us is nothing short of a temper tantrum. It robs our Everyday Stewardship of its graciousness, of our ability to accept with joy the trials of life because we are also constantly aware of its blessings.
